From Saturday March 9. to Tuesday March 12. 1733.

Hague, March 16, N. S.

THE States of Holland diſpoſed laſt Week of all the civil and military Employments in their Repartition, except the Command of the Regiment vacant by the Death of the Prince of Naſſau Siegen, which is not to be diſpoſed of till their ordinary Aſſembly in July next; and except likewiſe the Place of Fiſcal for criminal Affairs in the Court of Juſtice, upon which Holland and Zealand cannot as yet agree, that laſt Province alledging it to be their Turn to have the Nomination to it, and the other pretending the contrary. The ſaid States have this Day reſumed their Aſſembly and their Deliberations upon their domeſtick Affairs. Several Schemes have been propoſed for raiſing Money, but none reſolved upon as yet; nor is the Million propoſed to be negociated and employed for repairing the Fortifications, and filling up the Magazines, yet conſented to by the Province of Holland. Count Sinzendorff has taken his Leave of the States by Memorial, and they have ordered his Recredentials to be prepared, with the uſual Preſent. Count Uhlfeldt, who ſucceeds his Excellency, had this Morning a Conference with the States Deputies, as had likewiſe Mr. Finch.

Hague, March 19, N. S. The States of Holland now aſſembled, have been chiefly buſy in ſettling their Opinion delivered to the States General upon the preſent Juncture of Affairs relating to the Emperor. The College of the Nobles being deſired in the Aſſembly of Holland to fill up the Place which became vacant in the Council of State by the Death of the Baron de Langerach, M. Vander Duyn, declared he choſe the ſame, reſigning his Military Imployments.

Dublin, March 2.

Yeſterday being Her Majeſty's Birth-Day, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, who were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green. At Noon there was a ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to compliment His Grace the Lord Lieutenant; before whom an Ode, ſet to Muſick, was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Grace to the Ladies. At Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonſtrations of Joy through the City; and at the Caſtle there was a magnificent Ball, and an Entertainment given to a vaſt number of Perſons of both Sexes.

Navy Office, March 7, 1733.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that they received a Letter without a Name or Date, and in it a Bank Note for Twenty Pounds; and that the ſaid Bank Note has been received by the Treaſurer of His Majeſty's Navy, and put to His Majeſty's Account.

March 8, 1733-4.

The Principal Officers of His Majeſty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice to all Maſter Heymen and Lightermen that are willing to furniſh the ſaid Office with one Gun Hoy, fit and proper to tranſport Ordnance and Stores to and from his Majeſty's Ships in and about Portſmouth; and one other Gun Hoy, to be employed in tranſporting Ordnance and Stores to His Majeſty's Ships in and about Chatham, or to any of his Majeſty's Magazines on the Medway or Thames, (both the ſaid Hoys to be Victualled, Mann'd, Rigg'd &c. at the ſole Coſt and Charge of the Contractors) that they leave their Propoſals in Writing, ſealed up, at their Office in the Tower of London, on or before Tueſday the 19th Inſtant.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give Notice, That they intend to Lett by Leaſe or Grant, Liberty for Lighting the City of London, and Liberties thereof for Twenty One Years, from the 24th Day of June, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord 1736. And that the ſaid Committee will ſit in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on the Firſt Day of May next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Propoſals for the Method and Manner of Lighting the ſame; after which a further Day will be appointed for Leaſing or Granting thereof.

Attendance is daily given at Stationers-Hall, Ludgate-Street, for the Delivery to Subſcribers of the new Edition of THUANUS in Latin, in Seven Volumes in Folio, from Nine in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon till Five.

Advertiſements.
